Notes

On the proposed Amendments to the Constitution of this State

First Monday of October A.D. 1876.

Number 1.

"In case a new town shall hereafter be incorporated, such new town shall not be entitled to a representative in the general assembly unless it has at least twenty-five hundred inhabitants, and unless the town from which the major portion of its territory is taken, has also at least twenty-five hundred inhabitants, but until such towns shall each have at least twenty-five hundred inhabitants, such new towns shall, for the purpose of representation in the general assembly, be attached to, and be deemed to be a part of the town from which the major portion of its territory is taken, and it shall be an election district of such town for the purpose of representation in the house of representatives."

Number 2.

"The provisions of section two, article four, of the constitution, and of the amendments thereto, shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to all elections held on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1876, and annually thereafter."

Number 3.

"Judges of the courts of common pleas, and of the district courts, shall be appointed for terms of four years. Judges of the city courts and police courts shall be appointed for terms of two years."

Number 4.

"Judges of Probate shall be elected by the electors residing in their respective districts, on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1876, and biennially thereafter. Those persons elected Judges of Probate on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November 1876, and those elected biennially thereafter, shall hold their offices for two years from and after the Wednesday after the first Monday of the next succeeding January. Those persons elected judges of probate on the first Monday of April, 1876, shall hold their offices only until the Wednesday after the first Monday of January, 1877."

Number 5.

"The compensation of members of the general assembly shall not exceed three hundred dollars per annum, and one mileage each way for each session, at the rate of twenty-five cents per mile."

Number 6.

"That article eight of the amendments to the constitution be amended by erasing the word 'white' from the first line."

Legal form of Ballot-

Constitutional Amendments First Monday of October 1876.

Notes

On the Proposed Amendments

TO THE

Constitution

of this State,

First Monday of October

AD. 1877.

1881
The undersigned
do hereby certify
that the following is a true and correct
copy of the Constitution of the State of Connecticut
as amended to the 18th of May 1881

Constitution of the State of Connecticut
as amended to
the 18th of May 1881

Votes.

On the Proposed Amendments to the Constitution of this State.

First Monday of October A. D. 1877.

Number 1.

Neither the general Assembly, nor any County, City, Borough, town or school district shall have power to pay or grant any extra compensation to any public officer, employee, agent or servant, or increase the compensation of any public officer or employee, to take effect during the continuance in office of any person whose salary might be increased thereby, or increase the pay or compensation of any public contractor above the amount specified in the contract."

Number 2.

"No County, City, town, Borough, or other municipality shall ever subscribe to the Capital Stock of any railroad Corporation, or become a purchaser of the bonds, or make donations to, or loan its credit, directly or indirectly in aid of any such corporation, but nothing herein contained shall affect the validity of any bonds or debts incurred under existing laws, nor be construed to prohibit the general assembly from authorizing any town or city to protect by additional appropriations of money or credit, any railroad debt contracted prior to the adoption of this amendment."

---

Legal form of Ballot.

Constitutional Amendments First Monday of October 1877.

Number 1. Prohibiting extra compensation to Public Officers.

Number 2. Prohibiting cities and towns aiding Railroads.

This ballot will be counted as an affirmative ballot for both amendments, unless the number of one of them is plainly erased, and in that event it will be counted as a negative ballot for the amendment which may be so erased.
