The votes on the proposed amendment
of the Constitution of this State were, on the 29th day of October A.D. 1845, counted according to the provisions of an act entitled "An Act proposing to the People an Amendment of the Constitution of this State, approved June 10th 1845

Done at the Secretary of State

[Proposed Amendment.

Every white male citizen of the United States, who shall have attained the age of twenty-one years, who shall have resided in this State for a term of one year next preceding, and in the town in which he may offer himself to be admitted to the privileges of an elector, at least six months next preceding the time he may so offer himself, and shall sustain a good moral character, shall, on his taking such oath as may be prescribed by law, be an elector.]

[Proposed amendment:

 Constitution,
 August 15th 1854.

[Proposed amendment.

Every elector of this State who shall be in the military service of the United States, either as a drafted person or volunteer, during the present rebellion, shall, when absent from this State because of such service, have the same right to vote in any election of State officers, representatives in Congress, and electors of president and vice president of the United States, as he would have if present, at the time appointed for such election, in the town in which he resided at the time of his enlistment into such service. This provision shall in no case extend to persons in the regular army of the United States, and shall cease, and become inoperative and void, upon the termination of the present war. The General Assembly shall prescribe by law, in what manner and at what time, the votes of electors absent from this State, in the military service of the United States, shall be received, counted, returned, and canvassed.]

Proposed Amendment to the Constitution
Oct. 1865.

[Proposed amendment.

“Every male citizen of the United States who shall have attained the age of twenty-one years, who shall have resided in this State for a term of one year next preceding, and in the town in which he may offer himself to be admitted to the privileges of an elector, at least six months next preceding the time at which he may so offer himself, and shall be able to read any article of the Constitution, or any section of the Statutes of this State, and shall sustain a good moral character, shall, on taking such oath as may be prescribed by law, become an elector.”]

tution of this State

First Monday of October A.D. 1874.

“The House of Representatives shall consist of electors residing in towns from which they are elected. Every town which now contains, or hereafter shall contain a population of five thousand, shall be entitled to send two representatives, and every other one shall be entitled to its present representation in the general assembly. The population of each town shall be determined by the enumeration made under the authority of the census of the United States, next before the election of representatives is held.”

On the proposed Amendments to the Constitution of this State

First Monday of October A.D. 1875.

Number 1.

Section 1. A general election for governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, treasurer, comptroller, and members of the general assembly, shall be held on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1876, and annually thereafter for such offices as are herein, and may be by law prescribed.

Sec. 2. The state officers above named, and the senators from those districts having even numbers, elected on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1876, and those elected biennially thereafter on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, shall respectively hold their offices for two years from and after the Wednesday following the first Monday of the next succeeding January. The senators from those districts having odd numbers, elected on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1876, shall hold their offices for one year from and after the Wednesday following the first Monday of January, 1877; the electors residing in the senatorial districts having odd numbers shall, on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1877, and biennially thereafter, elect senators who shall hold their offices for two years from and after the Wednesday following the first Monday of the next succeeding January. The representatives elected from the several towns on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1876, and those elected annually thereafter, shall hold their offices for one year from and after Wednesday following the first Monday of the next succeeding January.

Sec. 3. There shall be a stated session of the general assembly in Hartford, on the Wednesday after the first Monday of January, 1877, and annually thereafter on the Wednesday after the first Monday of January.

Sec. 4. The persons who shall be severally elected to the state offices and general assembly on the first Monday of April, 1876, shall hold such offices only until the Wednesday after the first Monday of January, 1877.

Sec. 5. The general assembly, elected in April, 1876, shall have power to pass such laws as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this amendment.

Number 2.

The general assembly shall have power, by a vote of two thirds of the members of both branches, to restore the privileges of an elector to those who may have forfeited the same by a conviction of crime.

Legal form of Ballot.

Constitutional Amendments, First Monday of October 1875.

tion of this State

First Monday of October A.D. 1876.

Number 1.

"In case a new town shall hereafter be incorporated, such new town shall not be entitled to a representative in the general assembly unless it has at least twenty-five hundred inhabitants, and unless the town from which the major portion of its territory is taken, has also at least twenty-five hundred inhabitants, but until such towns shall each have at least twenty-five hundred inhabitants, such new towns shall, for the purpose of representation in the general assembly, be attached to, and be deemed to be a part of the town from which the major portion of its territory is taken, and it shall be an election district of such town for the purpose of representation in the house of representatives."

Number 2.

"The provisions of section two, article four, of the constitution, and of the amendments thereto, shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to all elections held on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1876, and annually thereafter."

Number 3.

"Judges of the courts of common pleas, and of the district courts, shall be appointed for terms of four years. Judges of the city courts and police courts shall be appointed for terms of two years."

Number 4.

"Judges of Probate shall be elected by the electors residing in their respective districts, on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1876, and biennially thereafter. Those persons elected Judges of Probate on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November 1876, and those elected biennially thereafter, shall hold their offices for two years from and after the Wednesday after the first Monday of the next succeeding January. Those persons elected judges of probate on the first Monday of April, 1876, shall hold their offices only until the Wednesday after the first Monday of January, 1877."

Number 5.

"The compensation of members of the general assembly shall not exceed three hundred dollars per annum, and one mileage each way for each session, at the rate of twenty-five cents per mile."

Number 6.

"That article eight of the amendments to the constitution be amended by erasing the word 'white' from the first line."

On the Proposed Amendments to the Constitution of this State.

First Monday of October A. D. 1877.

Number 1.

Neither the general Assembly, nor any County, City, Borough, town or school district shall have power to pay or grant any extra compensation to any public officer, employee, agent or servant, or increase the compensation of any public officer or employee, to take effect during the continuance in office of any person whose salary might be increased thereby, or increase the pay or compensation of any public contractor above the amount specified in the contract."
